

Playing the Game:

Overview:

In GoSports Table Tennis players rally back and forth and score a point when a player faults (see "Faults"). Either team can score regardless of who serves. Each game ends with the first side to score 21 points (or 11 points for shorter games) with at least a 2 point lead. A complete match is won when a team wins the best of any odd number of games (3, 5, 7).

STANDARD TABLE TENNIS RULES:

Players: 2-4 Players

Table Tennis may be played as singles (1-on-1) or doubles (2-on-2).

Serving:

- The serving side may be chosen with a coin toss or other similar method. The winner can choose whether or not to serve first.
 - If the serving player faults their first service, a second serve is allowed.
- Players will alternate serving two serves each.
- The serving player must hold the ball in a flat open palm and toss the ball straight up in the air at least 6 inches. The toss and serve are done from behind the table surface and not over the table.
- A legal serve first bounces in the serving player's service area and then bounces once in the opponent's service area before it is returned.
- If an otherwise legal serve touches the net, it is called a "let", no points are scored and the serve is replayed.
- After each game players will switch sides on the table.

Faults: A fault occurs when play is stopped due to a rule violation such as:

- A serve or return is hit into and does not clear the net.
- The ball is hit out of the table boundaries
 - The edges of the table are still considered in bounds. The sides of the table are not.
- Failing to hit the ball before it bounces twice
- A player hits the ball before it crosses onto their side of the net

Scoring: One point is scored when a ball is not returned by the opponent or if the opponent faults, regardless of who serves (see "Faults").

Winning: Each game ends with the first side to score 11 points with at least a 2 point lead. The first player to win best of 5 or 7 games is the winner.

Assembly:

Two Person Assembly Required

The GoSports Table Tennis Table is built to be sturdy, so it will be heavy and require 2 adults minimum for assembly.

To avoid scratching the table, we recommend assembling on a soft, even surface such as carpet, or assembling on top of the emptied cardboard box on a flat surface.

1: First lay down the two Table Halves with the court side face down.

2: Identify the Safety Lock on the undersides of each table, release the lock and unfold the pre-attached legs. Ensure all leg hinges are fully extended.

• Ensure the Hinges are fully Extended.

3: Line up a Triangle Leg onto the square tubing and hold it in place. Attach two Leg Clamps on opposite sides and align them with the holes on the square tubing. Insert two Legs Screws with Washers through each hole. On the opposite side, thread a Washer and Leg Nut onto each screw and tighten the screws to secure the clamps. Repeat for all legs.

4: Once all legs are secured and fully assembled, with two adults, flip one table half over onto its legs. Repeat with the other half.

5: Unlock the wheels and join the two halves in the middle and ensure there is no gap between the tables. Note: To move one table half, lift slightly on the player end and then push the table.

6: Next assemble the Net by sliding the end rods into the Net Clamps, with the white trim of the net on top. Ensure the two table halves are properly aligned and squeeze the Net Clamps to open and clamp them on the centerline of the tables.
